Consensus Voting: Food Insecurity Master List

Why is Consensus Voting Important?

- Consensus relies on due process to allow equity and fairness.
- The consensus process supports open participation, a balance of interests, and an equal opportunity for all participants without any dominant positions.
- Consensus voting provides the opportunity to address all views and resolve any objections so an agreement can be reached.

Why is Consensus Voting Important for Gravity?

- As a FHIR Accelerator, the Gravity Project adheres to HL7's well-defined set of operating procedures that ensures consensus, openness, and balance of interest.
  - The consensus-approved Food Insecurity Master List will help to inform future domain work (e.g., housing, transportation, other).
    - Sets the stage for multi-stakeholder review and approval of SDOH data elements.
  - The consensus-approved Food Insecurity data elements will be fully incorporated into the FHIR IG work for Food Insecurity.
    - Consensus agreement does not mean this is a “final” data set—it is an agreed upon benchmark to use for near-term FHIR IG development and testing.

Food Insecurity Master List Consensus Voting

- Consensus Voting will be open November 21 – December 5
- Committed Members are all expected to cast one of the following votes:
  - Yes
  - Yes with Comments (requires comments)
  - Formal Objection (requires comments)
  - Abstain (for those who do not feel prepared to vote)
- Consensus Voting requires a quorum (51%) of Committed Members
  - 213 current Committed Members = 117 required votes
  - We will be contacting Committed Members who have not voted by December 5th
  - Committed Members declining to vote should submit “Abstain”

How to Consensus Vote

- Go to <https://confluence.hl7.org/display/Consensus+Voting>
  - Download the Master List to review.
    - Summary documents are also available for reference
  - Complete the Consensus Voting Form on Confluence.
    - Comments should include the data concept, the ID # and the clinical activity (screening, diagnoses, goals, interventions)
  - Click the Submit button to formally submit your vote.
- Votes and comments will be consolidated and shared during the December 12th community meeting (last meeting of the year).
  - Votes, comments, and final dispositions will be posted on Confluence following the meeting as part of the Consensus Process.
