

Gravity Project Meetings

The Gravity Project community meetings will be going back to weekly starting October 10, 2019. Meetings are held for 1 hour on Thursdays from 4:00pm-5:00pm ET / 1:00pm-2:00pm PT.

This is an open, public project. Individuals are encouraged to attend community meetings whether they wish to actively participate and contribute to the development of project deliverables or simply follow the progress of the project to inform other work. We are looking forward to a broad, diverse stakeholder group with varying levels of commitment. If you would like to join the Gravity Project, please sign up here.

The Gravity Project uses a consensus process to finalize project documentation and deliverables. Click here to read more about the consensus process.
