

Registering Code Systems

This page is yet to be developed. It describes a process for registering code system urls and OIDs for the FHIR project.

Note: the vocabulary committee only registers code systems if either of these 2 things are true:

- The code system is publicly available under an open license
- An HL7 member or peer organization with a MoU that owns the code system asks for it to be registered