When should I use a Jira Ticket and when should I use an action item in Confluence?	If you are changing an artifact, involving multiple parties, or making a multi-part change, a Jira issue is appropriate. If you are tasking items from a Conference Call or meeting an action item in Confluence is appropriate.	Mar 05, 2019 10:54
How do I edit a page when the edit button is missing?	For one of the following reasons you do not have permissions to edit the page: 1. You are not logged in. 2. You are editing a page that is only for co-chairs or other to edit	To request an account, please go to https://confluence.hl7.org and select the blue "Request an Account" button.	Feb 25, 2019 15:25
Are published standards housed on Confluence?	No. Published standards are stored on HL7.org.	Feb 25, 2019 15:23

Is my HL7 login and username the same as my Confluence/Jira login?	No. HL7.org has a separate system for managing it's user database. The credentials for Confluence/Jira are completely separate from those for HL7.org	Feb 25, 2019 15:17
