Change Requests

The Jira FHIR specification feedback project is the means by which implementers and others can request changes to the FHIR specification. Anyone is permitted to submit feedback - and submitting feedback is strongly encouraged.

To register for an HL7 Jira userid, submit an issue here.

If you have any questions/issues when submitting specification feedback, detailed documentation can be found here.